

Irish American Archives Society will present talks throughout March:

At County Library branches

"The St. Patrick's Day Parade and the History of the Irish in Cleveland"

Fairview Park branch - Monday March 5 at 7 PM
Brooklyn branch - Tuesday, March 6 at 7:15 PM
Middleburg Heights branch - Saturday, March 10, 2 pm
Independence branch - Tuesday, March 13 at 7 PM

At Cleveland Public Library Main Branch

"Civil War Veterans and the Cause of Irish Nationalism in Cleveland"

Saturday, March 10, 11:00 am

At Music Box Supper Club

"How the Irish Built Cleveland"

Wednesday, March 14: Doors 5 pm, Talk 7 pm.
Free admission- reservations suggested (216-242-1250)
3-Course Prix Fixe Dinner Menu for only $20

At Brecksville Chambers of Commerce Lunch

"Irish Business Owners and Entrepreneurs of Cleveland"

Thursday, March 15, 11:30 am
Creekside Restaurant

At the Irish Goodfellows Lunch

"History of the Irish Goodfellows"

Saturday, March 17, Noon
Crowne Plaza Hotel

At Irish American News Speaker Series

"Parade Characters and Controversies"

Wednesday, March 21, 6:30 pm
Flat Iron Pub
With United Irish Societies Director Emeritus Patrick Murphy

Any questions? Contact iaasadmin@gmail.com

Admission to the library and pub talks is free. The Brecksville Chambers of Commerce and the Irish Goodfellows talks will take place during lunches sponsored by the organizations. Contact the sponsoring organizations for lunch details.