EILEEN MURPHY MULLALLY

Eileen Mullally, a founding member of the Irish American Archives Society, was born in December, 1920, in St. Louis, Mo. In 1943 she married the late Pierce H. Mullally, M.D., and with him had two children, Katie Murphy and the late Pat Mullally. Her family now includes her son-in-law, Ray Murphy, and two grandchildren, John Brendan Murphy and Eileen Kathleen Murphy.

A graduate of Trenton College, St. Louis University and John Carroll University, she has a bachelor's degree in nursing and a master's in guidance and education. Furthermore, she is a licensed realtor.

Consequently, she taught medical-surgical nursing at St. Vincent Charity Hospital School of Nursing, was a guidance counselor at Beaumont School, and was a realtor at Barbara Pumphrey Realty.

In 1947 she was named "Nurse of the Year" by the then major newspaper, the Cleveland Press.

For a variety of organizations, Eileen Mullally has held a variety of positions including founding member, president, and committee member. Among them are The Council of World Affairs, Cleveland Museum of Art, Women's City Club, The Carmelite Guild, Christ Child Society, Neuman Foundation, Parmadale Home for Children, Help Home, St. Vincent Charity Hospital Women's Guild, Cleveland Food Bank, St. Ann Parish Guild and the Irish American Archives Society.

For enrichment, she has belonged to a "Tuesday Study Club," a book club, a prayer group, and is an avid reader.
